Information Booklet

The Sri Sathya Sai System of Integral Education aims at the physical, mental, emotional, intellectual and spiritual development of every student. Baba wants every student to be an ideal student having the rare combination of the head of Adi Shankara (symbolising the path of wisdom), the heart of Buddha (symbolising the path of love and compassion) and the hands of Janaka (symbolising the path detached action). He says that in His Golleges, the medium of instruction is Discipline; Love, Service and Sadhana are the first, second and third languages.

TiyamainaVidyaarthulaara, is a compilation of Baba's Discourses to students in the Telugu language. Volume 1 consists of 24 Discourses and Volume 2 consists of 16 Discourses given by Baba to students on various occasions in the Hostel, Institute, Trayee Brindavan and Kodaikanal over the last quarter century. It is an ideal reading for those familiar with the Telugu script.

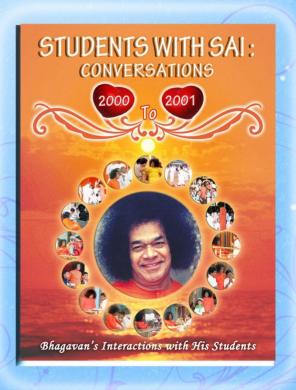

The beauty of Baba's Discourses in the native Telugu language unmatched and provides rare insights to the readers on His Message to students and the youth. This series of books is a first of its kind compilation in Telugu by Sai Publications, and was placed before Baba on the Maha occasion of the Shivaratri Festival 2012 and 2014.

STUDENTS WITH SAI: CONVERSATIONS

June 2001 at Trayee Brindavan. (1991-2000), (2000-2001) at (2001-2004) is a three part compilation of rare conversations between Baba and His students in the portico, verandah and interview room of the Prasanthi Nilayam Mandir. Some conversations have also been documented based on interactions during the practice sessions of sports and cultural programmes at the Poorna Chandra Auditorium and the Sri Sathya Sai Hil View Stadium. Part 2 of the series also covers an entire Trayee session season from April to June 2001 at Trayee Brindavan.

STUDENTS WITH SAI: CONVERSATIONS

This series is based on the collection of the 'Thus Spake Sai' columns which regularly appeared during the given years in the Sri Sathya Sai Hostels at Prasanthi Nilayam. 'Thus Spake Sai' was compiled by the students on a daily basis, based on the interactions that the students and staff were blessed to have with Baba. The students would make running notes while He spoke. They would go and cross verify the exact wordings that Baba had used while interacting with the concerned individuals. Swami would interact with the students, staff and other senior devotees languages including Telugu, various Kannada, English and Hindi. While compiling their notes, the students would attempt to get the exact translation of Baba's words so that nothing is missed out. Subsequently, these handwriten notes were typed, formatted and displayed on the notice board in the Sai Hostels so that all the students and staff would have the opportunity of reading and benefitting from the Divine pearls of wisdom.

The revised version of the first part of this series was released by Baba on December 3, 2010 in the verandah of the Prasanthi Nilayam. Part 2 and 3 were released on the occasions of Mahashivaratri and Tamil New Year 2014.

The essence of Baba's Message for His students has been captured in this series of books in the unique conversational format and makes very insightful and interesting reading.

Management

Institute of Higher Learning (SSSIHL) has been making pioneering efforts in the field of Values-Based Education. The question in the minds of majority of people today is: "What determines professional success? Is it degree, pedigree or a combination of many such features?" All those who seek genuine answers for such questions would surely find them in this book. Baba elucidates that, "It is the capital of 'Man-Management' which in turn depends on 'Self-Management' that enables people to achieve all-round success". The substance of this book is based on the discourses delivered by Him to the students and faculty of the Business School at the Institute. Baba says, "Human resources are more valuable than all the wealth of the world, for it is they who determine the effective utilisation of all other resources". Therefore, Baba chose 'Man Management' as the title for this book. This book makes the readers take a special look at the problems and issues of society and business from the perspective of 'Individual Reengineering'. Baba insists that, "Transformation of the world begins with the individual". We trust that business and management professionals, entrepreneurs, academicians, and students would find this book immensely inspiring. This revised and enlarged version of the Book was released by Baba on August 21, 2009 on the occasion of the 23rd Anniversary of the Management Programme at SSSIHL.

Cthics and the World of Finance, is a one of its kind compilation based on a unique and unparalleled Conference held in the history of the academic world of recent times at the Sri Sathya Sai Institute of Higher Learning, Prasanthi Nilayam, India, during August 28 and 29, 2010 with the Blessings of the Revered Founder Chancellor, Sri Sathya Sai Baba and the guidance of the then Honorable Vice Chancellor & Economist - Prof. Vishwanath Pandit.

The Conference brought together over 30 top-most Banking and Finance professionals, Renowned Academicians in the field of Banking, Finance and Economics, and Senior Regulators in the field. The Book commences with the Benedictory Message by Baba on the need to uphold Ethics and Morality in Business and Life. The Book consists of special talks given by eminent personalities including Subba Rao, Governor, Reserve Bank Dr. Y. Venugopal Reddy, Internationally Renowned Economist and Former Governor, Reserve Bank of India; Mr. Sethuraman V. Giri, Former Central Vigilance Commissioner, Government of India; and Prof. Vishwanath Pandit. The other prominent personalities who participated in the Panel Discussions included in the Book are Mr. K. V. Kamath, Mr. Aditya Puri, Mr. Uday Kotak, Ms. Kalpana Morparia, Ms. Meera Sanyal, among many others.

The professional compilation and style of presentation makes very attractive reading. This Book is a recommended reading for every student, researcher, academic and professional in the field of Business, Finance and Ethics.
